Dear Dr. Lederberg:

Thank you for your willingness to serve on a panel to develop and oversee a comprehensive plan for genetic analysis of the Collaborative Study data. I agree that a June meeting would be more suitable for everybody and I will call such a meeting for Thursday, June 19, as you suggested. I am delighted to extend an invitation to your wife to join the panel and participate in the discussions. I am sure that she will have much to contribute to the problem of data analysis. Since you will be attending a prior meeting at the NIMH, perhaps we will let them make your transportation arrangements but we will be glad to send a travel order and transportation request for your wife. Let me know if there is anything else in the way of arrangements that I could make for you from this end. I will be sending you some preliminary material later on.

With reiterated thanks, I am

Sincerely yours,
